

The handwriting practice sheet consists of three horizontal rows, each with a background of three bands: blue sky, green grass, and brown earth. Each row contains a solid black pattern with yellow arrows and stars indicating the direction of movement, followed by a dashed grey version of the same pattern for tracing. The patterns are: 1) A series of three connected loops, followed by a dashed version. 2) A large S-shaped wave, followed by a dashed version. 3) A series of seven connected humps, followed by a dashed version. Decorative elements include clouds, a sun, a mole, worms, and grass.
