

A handwriting practice row for the lowercase letter 'f'. The background is divided into three horizontal bands: light blue at the top, light green in the middle, and light brown at the bottom. On the left, there is a large solid 'f' with a green star at the top and a downward arrow indicating the stroke direction. Next to it is a dashed 'f' for tracing, also with a green star at the top. To the right of the dashed 'f' is a single green star. On the far right, there are three small icons: a white cloud with a yellow sun behind it in the blue band, a tuft of green grass in the green band, and a mole with its head and two legs sticking out of the ground in the brown band.
